Fingerstyle Guitar Magazine Announces Sponsorship Of The 7th Annual International Acoustic Music Awards

IAMA Honors The Best & Brightest In Acoustic Music and Fingerstyle Guitar Magazine Is Proud To Be A Sponsor Of The Only Awards Show Of Its Kind

Parsippany, N.J. (August 5, 2010) --- Fingerstyle Guitar, a bi-monthly magazine devoted to honoring the legends of fingerstyle guitar, as well as giving exposure to the top players of present and future generations, is proud to be providing Platinum Level sponsorship of the 7th Annual International Acoustic Music Awards (IAMA) for 2010.

"We're thrilled to be involved with the International Acoustic Music Awards in helping to provide a stage for musicians of all types to showcase their talents," said Alfred Foss, Publisher of Fingerstyle Guitar. "Each year, IAMA recognizes the best and brightest talent in acoustic music, which does so much to further this beautiful style."

The International Acoustic Music Awards promotes excellence in Acoustic Music Performance and Artistry in a number of categories, and is the only awards of its kind geared toward performing musicians. Judging is based on excellence in music performance, songwriting/composition/song choice, music production and originality/artistry. Last year's Overall Grand Prize Winner was Liz Longley for "When You've Got Trouble."

Entries for the 2010 IAMA's must be received by November 9, 2010. Information can be found IAMA's website at www.inacoustic.com.
